

End of Embargo/Dispensation from Consultation of Oxford Thesis Procedure v.4

Concerning those programmes which require deposit of the thesis in the Bodleian Library and ORA (D.Phil., M.Litt., M.Sc.(by research)).

GSA: Graduates Studies Assistants (17 staff cover all subject areas at the Departments/Divisional Office - <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/gso/staff.shtml>)

RDEO: Research Degree Examinations Office

Note: The Bodleian Libraries reserves the right to retain an embargo on a digital thesis if it is suspected that the thesis contains material that will infringe copyright or contains other sensitive information

Notes

- Hard copies of theses are deposited with the Bodleian Libraries and made available for consultation unless 'Dispensation from Consultation' has been granted.
- Digital copies of theses are deposited in ORA
  - MPLS: All digital theses are made open access on deposit in ORA unless the student applies for Dispensation from Consultation. At the end of the period of Dispensation from Consultation, the thesis will be made open access unless an extension has been granted by the Department/Faculty.
  - Humanities, Social Sciences and MSD: operate a default embargo of 3 years for digital copies of theses. The thesis will be made open access after this period unless an extension has been granted by the Department/Faculty.
- All students should apply for Dispensation from consultation should their thesis contain copyright or sensitive content (see www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/ora/oxford\_etheses/copyright\_and\_other\_legal\_issues) even if their thesis is subject to a default embargo. The period of restriction may last beyond the default embargo and should be applied for prior to deposit in ORA.
