

MEMORANDUM

COPY

Charles Antony Richard Hoare (hereinafter referred to as the "Laureate") and the Inamori Foundation (hereinafter referred to as the "Foundation") agree as follows:

1. The Laureate agrees that the Foundation may publish or have a third party publish the following the Laureate's works (hereinafter referred to as the "works");
 - 1) The acceptance speech at the Kyoto Prize Presentation Ceremony on November 10, 2000.
 - 2) The lecture at the Kyoto Prize Commemorative Lecture Meeting on November 11, 2000.
 - 3) The lecture and discussions at the Kyoto Prize Workshop on November 12, 2000.
 - 4) The lecture and discussions at the Kyoto Prize Laureates Lecture Meeting and Workshop in Kagoshima on November 16, 2000.
2. The Laureate agrees that the Foundation record, broadcast, insert in his home page or have a third party broadcast the works and distribute copies of the works.
3. In the preceding articles 1. and 2., the Foundation may translate, compile or resume the works if necessary.
4. The Foundation may use the image (photographs, videotapes or film) and other materials, that the Laureate has provided the Foundation, for the Kyoto Prize presentation ceremony and related events, and also for broadcasting and publications that will be sponsored, co-sponsored or cooperated by the Foundation. For those, of which copyright is owned by other than the Laureate, the Foundation will negotiate directly with or have a third party negotiate with the copyright owner concerning the use of such material.
5. The Foundation may use the image (photographs, videotapes or films) taken of the Laureate and the Laureate's companion during the Kyoto Prize invitation period (November 7 to 17, 2000), with proviso paying great respect for privacy.
6. The Foundation may perform the acts of the preceding 5 articles within the scope of the purpose of the Foundation. In this relation, no royalty will be paid by the Foundation.
7. If problems not provided in this memorandum occur, both parties will confer with faith to solve such problems.

November 9, 2000

The Laureate

Charles Antony Richard Hoare

The Inamori Foundation

Kazuo Inamori, President