

Graphical linear algebra

Pawel Sobocinski

We will discuss the symmetric monoidal theory of Interacting Hopf Algebras (IHA) and show that it is a presentation of the prop of linear relations. IHA amounts to a graphical language for linear algebra. We will develop this idea, and show how the graphical notation can be used to reason about the signal flow graphs, which are state-machine representations of linear dynamical systems.