

Grace Hopper Travel Fund 2018-19

We are excited to announce the NEW OxWoCS Grace Hopper Travel Fund!

Every year, OxWoCS is proud to send two students to the Grace Hopper Conference, all expenses paid. In 2017, the conference brought together over 18,000 people from around the world for an incredible celebration of women in technology. The 2018 conference is taking place in Houston, Texas, and OxWoCS would like to offer even more students at the University of Oxford the opportunity to participate in this amazing event. We would like to invite any interested company to contribute to the OxWoCS Grace Hopper Travel Fund, which will be used to pay for the travel, accommodation, food, and registration for students who are selected to receive a travel scholarship. Contribution to this travel fund is open to all companies, regardless of whether or not they sponsor OxWoCS.
